CIA AIDS PORTUGUESE REPRESSION IN AFRICA

Havana in Spanish to the Americas 0000 GMT 5 May 1966--E

(Text) The direct participation of the U.S. Government in repressive actions against African liberation movements is revealed in an article published by the U.S. magazine NEWSWEEK. According to this magazine, the U.S. Government, through the CIA, supplies bombers, arms, and other war materiel to the Portuguese regime of Antonio Oliveira Salazar. The Portuguese dictatorship, says NEWSWEEK, is using these U.S. supplies, as well as some CIA pilots, in repressive actions against the colonies of Portuguese Guinea, Mozambique, and Angola.
